I the undersigned beg to submit that on account of the majority of the Hindus Voters in 2nd Division our muslim community could not get any membership since two or three muslims were toying for a membership in the Municipal Council from II block, but on account of some of the party feelings Hindu members our community has been unable to obtain representation through election.

OFFICE OF THE MINISTER FOR REVENUE No. P2029 Date 27/1/1947

Three years back in the last election three muslims had stood for election, but none of them succeeded Then we had applied for nomination showing the above difficulties of muslims of II block Here also we could not get any chance this year also before election, we approaches some of the Hindu members and requestes them to take one member among muslim community out of seven members, but they completely refuses to do so, Then two muslims stood in the election against seven Hindu members on account of the majority of the Hindu voters Both of them defeated by a majority of seven members. Hence I on behalf of muslims of II block most humbly request your
